HIDDEN TREASURES OF NORTH INDIA

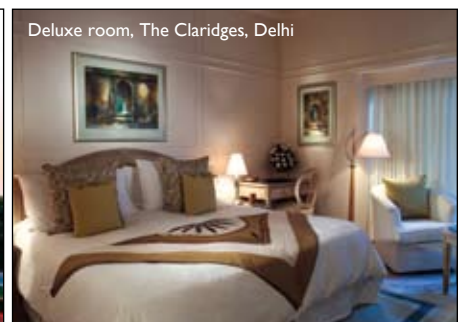

Delhi • Udaipur • Deogarh • Jaipur • Ranthambore N.P.
• Agra • Khajuraho • Varanasi

“My visit to India had a greater impact on me than that of any country I’ve ever visited. India is a beautiful country with warm and accepting people, a diversity of cultures and religions, splendid art and architecture and more color and activity than one can imagine. I can’t wait to return and I will choose Worldview Tours for my next trip.”

-Glenna Lybrand

Hidden Treasures of North India tour offers an in-depth look at some of India’s greatest sights in a super saver affordable price. Explore the genius of Mughal architecture at Taj Mahal, exquisite palaces and massive forts in Rajasthan. Scout for wild tiger stripes in Ranthambore National Park and witness Hindu rituals at Holy River Ganges. Enjoy visual and performing arts with behind-the-scenes access to artists at work and see some private art collections. Visit many colorful villages and sample the foods of different regions.

FANTASTIC SHOPPING OPPORTUNITIES

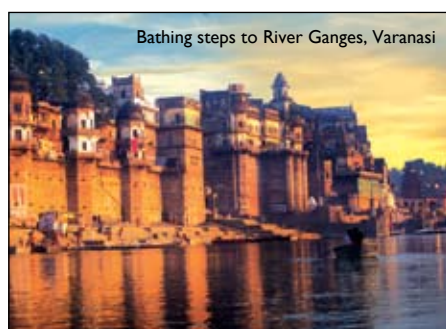

The Indian craftsman has been perfecting his art for centuries, passing on traditions and techniques from generation to generation. Each region has its own specialties, each town its own local craftsmen, its own particular skills. Visit India for its handicrafts, fabrics, silverware, carpets, leather work, and antiques - the list is endless - India is a shopping paradise. Shoppers find that goods are exotic, attractive, beautifully handcrafted and an excellent value.
