Kailash Temple, Ellora Caves

AJANTA AND ELLORA-ARCHITECTURAL MASTERPIECES

The Kailash Temple at Ellora caves is one of the most spectacular and audacious architectural constructions ever made. This whole masterpiece, hand-carved by skillful workers, implied the removal of 200,000 tons of rock, took several hundred years to create and is twice the size of the Parthenon. Ajanta Caves are a series of 29 Buddhist cave temples, some of which date from the 2nd century BC. Encompassing Buddhist traditions, the Ajanta caves preserve some of the best masterpieces of 2,000 year old Buddhist art in India.
